THE ASSOCIATION

Since 1928, the Hotel & Lodging Association of Greater Kansas City has represented the hotel industry in both Kansas and Missouri, providing services that cannot be duplicated by any other organization.

The association represents more than 130 hotels, and is proud to contribute to the growth of the Greater Kansas City business community.

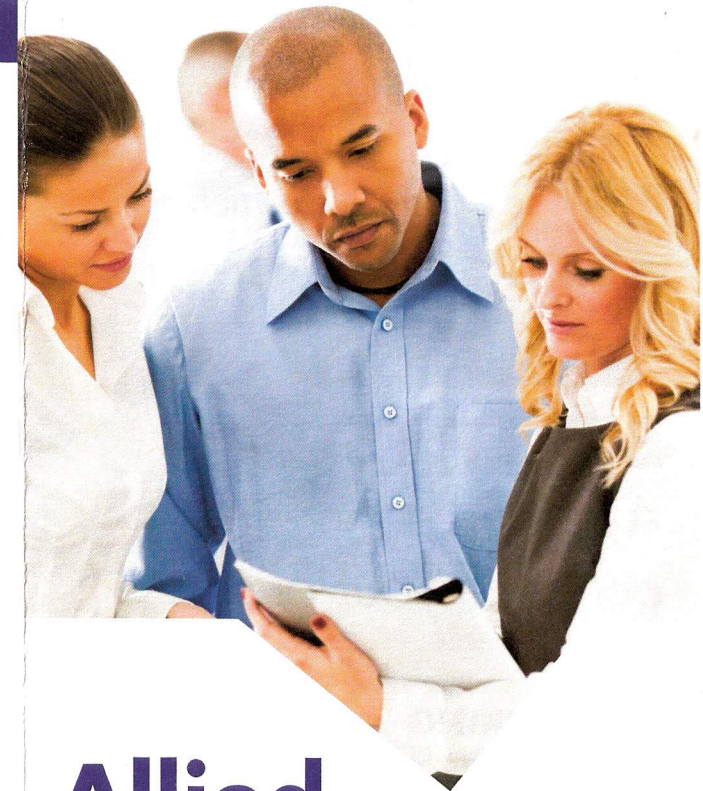

THE PURPOSE

- Develop effective working relationships with hotel general managers and suppliers.
- Ensure that members adhere to the highest ethical standards of the lodging industry.
- Provide legislative and regulatory representation.
- Create a favorable climate that promotes travel, tourism, and convention business.

EDUCATION

In 1991, the Association established an Education Foundation to increase the educational opportunities for its members.

Educational benefits of membership include continuing educational classes, industry certification assistance, and scholarships to college students.
